

Do you have digital marketing and event planning experience, and are you interested in being part of an international company that feeds the world? If being part of the team that handles all of the company's marketing and event activities energizes you, consider joining our team!

We are looking for someone who matches our vision and values AND can offer digital marketing and event planning skills as a key player on our team. In this one-of-a-kind role you will work alongside genuine, hard-working professionals to fulfill personal and professional goals. We are an established, industry-leading privately-held company who offers meaningful work and recognizes team members' dedication with exceptional rewards.

In this role, you will be based at our West Des Moines, IA location and will serve as our Digital Marketing and Events Coordinator for Hy-Line International. While reporting to the Director of Marketing, your focus will include providing creative ideas and support for the company's online marketing presence as well as planning and hospitality for our international and domestic events. In this critical role, you will work with diverse and multi-national Hy-Line team members around the world to meet exciting marketing objectives.

We're seeking candidates with a Bachelor's degree in a business or marketing-related major who are able to maintain a customer service focus while having the ability to work in a fast-paced, dynamic, multi-location environment. A proactive and creative mindset with strong organizational, prioritization, computer skills, online savvy, and the ability to work with people at all levels within the organization around the world are a must. We strongly prefer candidates who understand what needs to be done as much as getting it done. Candidates with a proactive "doer" mindset and written and verbal Spanish skills will be given preference. We value growth potential and fit as much as formal experience and education. Experience with Microsoft and Adobe products and in the agriculture industry is preferred but not required.

Apply today by emailing your cover letter and resume to HR@hyline.com. We look forward to learning more about you and sharing the Hy-Line story!
